Cell Phone Policy

Although the Burlington Public Library does not encourage the use of cell phones in the building, we do understand that there are times when it may be necessary. During those times, we ask that you be considerate and respectful of others by following the guidelines below:

- Please put your phone on vibrate or silence when in the library
- Limit your calls to brief, quiet conversations
- Only use your phone on the first floor, the second floor (including study rooms) is designated as the quiet zone
- Refrain from using phones at the public service desks and during library programs

The Board of Trustees reserves the right to amend this policy, and to rule on situations not specifically covered herein. The Board of Trustees and the Library Director shall review this policy as needed.
