

Sharpen your mind and connect with others.

ONLINE RESOURCES

These free online resources are also good ways to learn a new language:

The Immigrant Learning Center

<https://www.ilctr.org/programs/>

The ILC Public Education Institute has compiled resources for immigrants, refugees, parents and educators.

Boston Public Library

<https://www.bpl.org/learning-tools/language-learning/>

Access Mango Languages and Transparent Language with a Boston Public Library eCard.

MIT Global Languages

<https://ocw.mit.edu/>

Free courses with interactive content from MIT OpenCourseWare and MITx courses.

Updated 2/16/2024

LANGUAGE RESOURCES

- Books, Audiobooks, and DVDs
- World Language Collection
 - Library Databases
 - Classes
- Online Resources

BOOKS, AUDIOBOOKS AND DVDs

Dictionaries, grammar guides, audio lessons, and phrasebooks are available in the 400s section of our Nonfiction collection. Languages include:

- Arabic
- Armenian
- Chinese
- Croatian
- Dutch
- English
- Farsi
- French
- German
- Greek
- Hebrew
- Hindi
- Hungarian
- Irish
- Italian
- Japanese
- Korean
- Latin
- Lithuanian
- Polish
- Portuguese
- Russian
- Spanish
- Swahili
- Swedish
- Thai
- Turkish
- Ukrainian
- Vietnamese

World Language Collection

Fiction and Nonfiction books are now available in our growing World Language Collection. Current languages include French, Gujarati, Hindi, Korean, Spanish, and Tamil, with more languages coming soon.

Help build the collection by suggesting new titles and languages with the QR code below.

LIBRARY DATABASES

The library offers the following databases available through the library's website:

Transparent Languages

Online language learning with lessons in over 110 languages including English.

Rocket Languages

Online language learning courses that practice pronunciation. A proven way for successful learning. Choose from Arabic, Chinese, English, French, German, Hindi, Spanish, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, and Sign Language.

CLASSES

Burlington Public Library (781) 270-1691

A 12-week free Basic English course taught by Sue MacDonald, a long time ESL teacher. Register at burlingtonpl.org.

YMCA - Woburn (781) 935-6499

Beginner and advanced ESL classes. Visit www.woburnilc.weebly.com for class registration and more information.

Boston Public Library (617) 859-2446

The Boston Public Library offers ESL instruction in person and online. Visit www.bpl.org/learning-english/ for more information.